To Whom It May Concern

Dear Sir/Madam,

TESTIMONIAL
JAVERINE TAN
NRIC: T0529853E

This is to certify that Javerine Tan was an intern with Chief Data Office, Home Team Science and Technology Agency (HTX) from September 2024 to July 2025, during which she contributed meaningfully to the projects under the office.

2. One of her key assignments involved developing a web application from the ground up to support data request processes. She demonstrated strong analytical skills in translating user requirements into practical, user-friendly features. Even when faced with complex or unfamiliar challenges, Javerine approached them with enthusiasm and resilience, often proposing thoughtful solutions and successfully delivering a functional data product.

3. Her ability to complete tasks timely while suggesting value-added improvements was commendable. Javerine's collaborative spirit and positive attitude also made her a valued member of the team. Additionally, she supported a cross-border collaboration project where she independently set up an air-gapped laptop and liaised with external partners, showing maturity and initiative beyond her years.

4. Javerine's adaptability, problem-solving mindset, and professionalism are traits that will serve her well in her academic and future professional journey. We are confident she will be a tremendous asset wherever she goes. We wish her all the best as she embarks on her university education and beyond.

Yours faithfully,

Mr Lim Kim Boon
